Today's Market Reports

AMERICANS ACTIVE IN LONDON WOOL MARKET

London, July 8.—The wool auction sales were continued today with offerings of 13,751 bales. A large selection of crossbreds sold briskly to Americans, the home trade and occasionally the continent at opening rates. Americans bought a fair supply of merinos which advanced 5 per cent.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, July 8.—Generally clear weather in the northwest, allaying fear of damage from black frost, today tended to make the wheat market easy. The daily reports indicated that the yields in the winter crop region were exceeding what had been predicted, and cattle bids were decidedly better than yesterday. The opening, which varied from 4¢ off to a shade advance, was followed by a slight rally and then by a decline all around.

The close was weak, 4¢ off 4¢ under last night.

Corn rose on account of cash demand here and southwest. Oklahoma dispatches telling of injury due to hot winds after starting 4¢ 1/4¢ higher, the market continued to gain.

The close was weak, 4¢ to 4¢ 1/2¢ higher.

Lightness of offerings had a bullish effect on oats. Price changes, however, were only moderate.

Provisions advanced with hogs.

The best demand was for ribs.

Closing prices:

Wheat—July 78 1/2¢; Sept. 78 1/2¢. Corn—July 63 1/2¢; Sept. 65¢. Oats—July 27 1/2¢; Sept. 25 1/2¢. Pork—July, $21.87; Sept., $22.37. Lard—July, $19.67; Sept., $19.20. Ribs—July, $11.87; Sept., $11.82.
